

20. If you apply this principle to others in your life, will you grant them the grace to also start over again, and give them a clean start? Hold only love and mercy, let go of grudges!

21. Write a brief summary of each psalm:

Ps. 25–

Ps. 32 –

Ps. 51 –

Ps. 80 –

Ps. 85 –

Personal Psalms

Lesson #12

Just Start Over Again

Often times we might feel like we have failed one too many times and that it is no use for us to keep on trying. This is a true feeling, but not a true Bible principle. The Bible is full of encouragement from God that he understands and will give us a new beginning, and renew our energies and hope.

#12-START OVER
How to	25
Confessing	32
New beginning	51
Renewed relations	80
Revive me again	85

1. Read the Psalms in this section in one sitting. What is your first impression?
2. Now we are going to study Psalms 25 . If you were feeling horrible because of your own sins and mistakes, how would this Psalm help you?
3. Read Psalms 25:11. What does this verse mean?

4. In what ways has God already “rescued you”? Ps. 25:20

5. If you made a list of all your current troubles, how could you reword verse 22 to make it apply to you?

6. In Psalms 32:1, it says a man whose sins are covered is happy. Why?

7. What does guilt feel like and what does it do to us? Ps. 32:3,4

8. What can we do with our guilt? Ps. 32:5

9. What is false guilt?

10. In Psalms 51, David is feeling horrible because he had committed adultery with Bathsheba and had her husband killed. Describe his feelings:

11. Where did he decide that he could be cleansed from this guilt? What does it mean to be cleansed?

12. Why did he say in Ps. 51:4, that he had only sinned against God?

13. What is hyssop? Ps. 52:7 What does the analogy mean?

14. When can you have a pure heart? What would it look like? Ps. 51:10

15. What does Ps. 51:12 mean to you?

16. What does it mean to be revived again? Ps. 85:6 How often could it happen?

17. Who is the best person to listen to? Ps. 85:8 Why?

18. What does Ps. 85:10 mean? Why is it important?

19. Based on the Psalms that you have read today about starting over again, again, would you like to start over again?